

How to use Pod Talk:

Talking through the Bible during the week helps us practice what we are learning. Read the Sunday Bible passage, discuss what you notice, share what God is inviting you to apply to your life, and wrap up with prayer. (SOAP)

Sermon Main Idea:

When God calls, He relentlessly pursues, prepares, equips, and provides for us; we need only listen, receive, and obey.

Introduction:

1. What is something that God has called you to (past or present)?
2. How did you know that God was calling you?

SOAP:

Scripture | read Exodus 3:1-22 and relate last week's daily bible readings

Observation | what do we notice? what stands out?

1. What is significant about God calling Moses through the burning bush?
2. What stands out to you about the way that Moses responded to God's call?
3. What attributes of God do you see in His response to Moses?
4. What speaks to your heart about the way that God provided for what He called Moses to?
5. Why do you think that God pursued Moses so relentlessly for this calling?

Application | what can we apply to our life today?

1. Do you find it more difficult to listen, receive, or obey? Why do you think this is a struggle for you?
2. What passions has God been developing in you? How do you feel Him directing you through them?
3. How have you struggled to receive your worth from God? Where do you tend to find your worth?
4. What do you sense God is calling you to right now?
5. How can you respond to this passage in your relationship with God (Up)? In your relationship with those in the church (In)? Or, in your relationship with those outside the church (Out)?

Prayer | ask God to help you live out your application
